

LWC MUSICAL—UPDATE

Well kids, this is certainly unexpected and unprecedented, but here we are.

Here's everything that we know. Anything else that you hear is rumor and should not be taken seriously unless you also hear it from us.

Performances of LITTLE SHOP are NOT canceled.

*While school is out, there will be no "official" musical rehearsals.

*We might plan to meet with small groups of you off campus somewhere (library, etc.) to review lines and blocking. However, the full cast will NOT meet while school is closed. Please think about your songs, staging, etc. and practice on your own during this time off.

*You'll be getting a survey (Google form) about your availability over Spring Break, now that so many people's plans have changed. The state school closing ends over our break, so there's a chance that we could pick up on our work then. PLEASE TAKE THE SURVEY as soon as you get it.

*We had planned to launch ticket sales this week, but we're going to wait until things have stabilized a bit. We will keep you posted.

*That's it for now. More to come, but again, unless you hear it from us, it's probably being made up.

Love to you all and stay safe—
